Copyright Page

This page holds your copyright information. You may also put the contact information for your cover designer or others who have worked on your book. Many indie writers (myself included) have begun including this page at the very end of their books. No need to reinvent the wheel on this one, feel free to use the sample text below for your copyright page.

The text is large for the purposes of this document but usually the copyright information is smaller, usually in a Times New Roman font and at around a 9 point size.
